

 Search Home Guides Reference Learn

Automate submissions

Use EAS Update

Trigger builds from CI

Trigger builds from GitHub App

 App Signing

App credentials

Use automatically managed credentials

Use local credentials

Use existing credentials

Sync credentials between remote and local sources

Security

 Custom builds

Get started

Config schema

TypeScript functions Reference

Build schema for eas.json

Migrate from "expo build"

Build lifecycle hooks

TypeScript functions

Learn how to create and use EAS Build functions in your custom build configurations.

This functionality is in preview under active development and likely to change.

EAS Build functions are a great way to extend the functionality

On this page

Initialize an EAS Build function moduleCompiling the function and connect it to the config fileCompile the functionConnect the function to the custom build configWorking on the functionSummary