

 Search Home Guides Reference LearnSearch ParametersRedirectsStatic RenderingAsync routesSitemapTyped routesAuthenticationScreen tracking for analyticsTop-level src directoryTestingTroubleshootingFAQ MigrationReact Navigation Expo Modules APIOverviewGet started TutorialsCreate a native moduleCreate a native view

Use third-party native libraries in Expo

Learn how to create a simple wrapper around two separate native libraries using Expo Modules.

Expo modules make it possible to easily use native, external libraries

On this page

Create a new moduleStart with a new projectStart with an existing projectRun the example projectAdd native dependenciesDefine an APIImplement the module on AndroidImplement the module on iOSWrite an example app to use the moduleRebuild and launch your applicationNext steps